The Coaches

GEORGE S. HALAS is the home town boy who has realized all of the dreams of success a youngster might have. He's a native of Chicago's West Side who prepped at Crane Tech high school and then went on to the University of Illinois to win letters in football, basketball and baseball.

He enlisted in the Navy in world war 1; starred at end on the Great Lakes eleven that won the Rose Bowl game of Jan. 1, 1919; played outfield briefly for the New York Yankees later that year . . . and then really began his career when he founded the present Bears as the Staleys in Decatur, Ill. When the team was moved to Chicago in 1921, the name was changed to Bears because their home grounds was Wrigley Field, then as now the home of the baseball Cubs.

This is Halas' 46th season of professional football—all as owner of the Bears—and his 38th as the head coach. It's his fourth time 'round as head coach—his tenures have been 1920-'29; 1933-Nov. '42, when he entered the Navy in World War 2; 1946-'55; and 1958 to the present.

His personal record as head coach includes six of the eight world's championship Bear teams . . . 301 victories; 129 defeats; 28 ties. During World War 2, he was welfare and recreation officer of the Pacific Fleet and was decorated with the Bronze Star.

JOHNSOS

LUKE JOHNSOS has been with the Bears organization, first as a player and then as a coach, for 37 years, beginning in 1929 after he graduated from Northwestern. At Northwestern and then, for nine seasons with the Bears, he was a sixty-minute, two-way player, an end who distinguished himself on both offense and defense. Johnsos also was a baseball letter winner at Northwestern and received a tryout with the Cincinnati Reds after his graduation. With the Bears, he was a key figure in seven of eight world's championships—as a player in 1932-'33; as coach in 1940, 1941, 1943, 1946 and 1963. He retired as a player and became a coach in 1937. In midseason 1942, when Halas entered the Navy, Johnsos became co-coach with Hunk Anderson and they served through 1945. Johnsos' offseason position is with Bagcraft Corporation of America.

DRISCOLL

years later and then coached at Marquette and Chicago St. Mel's high school. Driscoll holds two NFL dropkicking records.

JOHN L. "PADDY" DRISCOLL, inducted into pro football's Hall of Fame this year, is director of research and planning who has been a member of the Bears' staff since 1941. In 1956-'57, he was head coach, his initial squad winning the NFL Western Conference title. Driscoll is a native of Evanston and one of Northwestern's all-time football greats. He was a team mate of Halas on the 1919 Great Lakes eleven and in 1920, he began a professional football career with the then Chicago Cardinals, coaching them in 1921-'22. In 1926, he joined the Bears, retired five several regimes as well as a head coach in 1943 and 1945. In the off-season, Handler is associated with the Douglas Lumber Co., Chicago.

PHIL HANDLER is in his 36th consecutive season in the National Football League, as both player and coach with the Cardinals and, since 1952, as a member of the Bears' staff. This year, his responsibility is the defensive line, following several seasons of coaching the offensive forwards. Handler began his pro career in 1930, following graduation from Texas Christian where he's ranked one of the greatest of all Southwestern Conference linemen. He was equally topflight with the Cardinals and after retiring as a player, he became assistant in Kansas, he coached six consecutive state champions at Massillon, O., high school with an overall record of 57-3. He is a native of Steubenville, O., who holds an M.A. degree from Kent State.

CHARLES "CHUCK" MATHER joined the Bears' staff in the spring of 1958 after a highly successful head coaching career at both the high school and collegiate levels. He effected a remarkable rebuilding job at the University of Kansas whose Jayhawkers, under his development, rose from an 0-10 record in 1954 to a second place finish in the Big Eight Conference in 1957. Kansas for the first time in history defeated Missouri, Kansas State and Nebraska in the same year and Mather was honored as Big Eight Coach of the Year. Before going to

ALLEN

GEORGE ALLEN has been with the Bears since October 1958, following one season as end coach of the Los Angeles Rams. Before that, he had been an outstandingly successful head coach of college teams, particularly at Whittier in California and Morningside in Iowa. With the Bears, he has had the defensive coaching assignment. In the world championship season of 1963, the defense overall led the NFL in ten of nineteen defensive categories and was second in eight others. The pass defenders set a Bears' team record with 36 interceptions. Allen, a native of Detroit, played varsity football at Marquette and Alma, Mich., College and lettered in wrestling at Michigan. He is a member of Sigma Delta Psi, national honorary athletic and scholastic fraternity.

LUCKMAN

SID LUCKMAN was inducted into pro Football's Hall of Fame this year, a tribute to his quarterbacking skills that brought the Bears four world championship teams (1940, '42, '43 and '46) during his twelve years with them. He was all-NFL quarterback from 1941 through 1947 and in 1943, won the league's Most Valuable Player Award. Before his retirement as an active player in 1951, he gained wide credit as the most successful early practitioner of the "T" formation that opened up the game. He has been with the Bears continuously as a player or in an advisory coaching capacity since 1939. Sid was born and raised in Brooklyn, starred in athletics at Columbia University and also was named to Collegiate Football Hall of Fame. He is vice-president of Cellu-Products Corp.

DOOLEY

JIM DOOLEY made the transition from player to coach with the Bears in 1963. He was their No. 1 draft choice for 1952 from Miami of Florida and spent his first NFL campaign as a defensive back. In 1953, he was moved to offensive end and was a regular from then on, except for all of 1955 and the first eight games of 1956 when he served in the U.S. Air Force and 1958, when a dislocated ankle just before the season began forced him into idleness all year. His career statistics total shows 211 pass receptions for 3,172 yards and 16 touchdowns.

CODY

ED CODY is back with the Bears, for whom he was linebacker, halfback and fullback in 1949 and 1950. A native of Newington, Conn., who came west to enroll at and graduate from Purdue, he was football catpain and Big Ten scoring and ground gaining leader; all-conference and second All-American. He was the Green Bay Packers' No. 1 draft choice for 1947 but after two years with them, came to the Bears. From 1952 through 1955, he coached St. Rita's high school in Chicago and scouted Bears' opponents. Between 1956 and 1960, he coached University of California at Santa Barbara where one of his stars was Johnny Morris. In subsequent seasons, he was assistant at Washington State University and head coach at San Bernardino Valley College. His record as head coach shows 68 victories, 31 losses, 3 ties.

GIBRON

ABE GIBRON is another ex-Bear, returning as offensive line coach after five years on that assignment with the Washington Redskins. A native of Michigan City, Ind., and all-Big Ten guard at Purdue, he played seven seasons with the Cleveland Browns, one with the Philadelphia Eagles and then came to the Bears for the 1958-1959 seasons. He was offensive captain. This will be his sixteenth N.F.L. season as a player or a coach. With Cleveland, he played on six straight Eastern conference winners, three of which won world championships. He was all-NFL in 1955 and played in five Pro Bowl games.

The Trainer

ROZY

ED ROZY is in his eighteenth season as trainer of the Bears. He is a long-time career man in sports with versatility of effort in his record. He lettered in football as a guard at Marquette University from which he graduated in 1933. As a senior, he was intramural director of athletics, a position which still was his after graduation. For twelve years, he was trainer of all of Marquette's athletic teams but also coached freshman football, boxing, wrestling, tennis, golf and fencing. Rozy was a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy from 1944 through 1947.

JON ARNETT (21) HB 5'11" 203 Southern Cal. 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1964, T-Los Angeles Born: 4-20-'35, Los Angeles

Arnett, coming to the Bears on a trade for Roger Davis, Joe Wendryhoski and Frank Budka, reported Aug. 24, 1964, with only two games to go on the preseason schedule. Of necessity, he was worked into the offensive backfield gradually although he saw a lot of early service on two other specialties, punt and kickoff returns. As a running back, he carried only 28 times for 70 yards and caught six passes for 36 in the first seven NFL games. But in the second half, he ran 91 times for 330 yards, caught 19 passes for 187. He led the Bears in rushing for the season. His career record is evidence of the efficiency of his deceptive running style. He was the Rams' no. 1 draft choice for 1957 and when he left them, he was the only Los Angeles player in history whose combined "three R's" yardage (rushing, receiving, runbacks) exceeded 8,000. Offseason home: Los Angeles.

DOUG ATKINS (81) DE 6'8" 255 Tennessee 13th Season
Joined Bears: 1955, T-Cleveland Born: 5-8-'30, Humboldt, Tenn.

Injuries reduced Atkins' playing time heavily in 1964 after his great season with the 1963 champions when he was a unanimous all-NFL choice at defensive end. A knee injury slowed him during the preseason campaign while a groin injury caused him to miss four games in November. He underwent surgery on his knee Jan. 17 and it was successful. Keyman in one of the most productive trades ever made by the Bears, Doug has been a towering defensive performer ever since. He also was all-NFL selection in 1960-'61 and seven times, from 1958 through 1964, he was a member of the West team in the Pro Bowl. At Tennessee, where he enrolled originally on a basketball scholarship, he was an all-American tackle and Cleveland's no. 1 draft choice for 1953. Offseason home: Knoxville, Tenn.

CHARLES BIVINS (49) FB 6'2" 212 Morris Brown 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1960, D-7 Born: 10-16-'38, Atlanta, Ga.

Bivins, a reserve at both halfback and fullback, has been used principally on kickoff returns with the result that his 62 runbacks for 1,531 yards makes him club career leader in this department. Last season, when he rushed 29 times for 92 yards and caught 11 passes for 59, was his third best since joining the Bears. Bivins suffered a fractured kneecap in the Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit. In 1961, he ran 44 times for 188 yards and in 1963, he had 104 yards on 44 tries. Offseason home: Atlanta, Ga.

RUDY BUKICH (10) QB 6'2" 205 Southern Cal. 11th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, T-Pittsburgh Born: 12-15-'32, St. Louis, Mo.

Bukich had his best NFL season yet in 1965 with 99 pass completions out of 160 attempts for 1,099 yards, a league leading 61.9 percent and twelve touchdown passes in a four-game stretch drive. He also tied a league record with thirteen consecutive pass completions against San Francisco Nov. 22 and Detroit Nov. 26. Drafted no. 2 by the Los Angeles Rams in 1953, he was with them that season and then went into military service for two years. Subsequently, he quarterbacked for Washington, Pittsburgh and the Bears. A school teacher in the offseason, he also is working on a doctorate in educational administration. A shoulder separation suffered against Green Bay Dec. 5 retired him the rest of the year. Offseason home—Costa Mesa, Cal.

RON BULL (29) HB 6' 200 Baylor 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-1 Born: 2-2-'40, Kingsville, Tex.

Bull's 320 yards on 86 carries put him second in rushing for the Bears last season although his average—3.7—bettered Jon Arnett's 3.3. Three years with the Bears have seen him average 3.4 rushing. He has been a consistent, all-around performer since he first joined the team in 1962 and was selected as rookie of the year. Injuries slowed him in 1963 until midseason, but it was his iron-man performance in the 14-10 world title win over the New York Giants that many consider the highlight of his career so far. On the last two sequences of plays against the Giants, Bull carried ten of thirteen times contributing two important first downs and missing another by less than a foot. That ball control preserved the lead. Offseason home: Schiller Park, Ill.

Bearographies

GEORGE BURMAN (68) T-C 240 6'3½" Northwestern 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, D-15 Born: 12-1-'42, Whiting, Ind.

When Mike Pyle was sidelined with an ankle injury just before the game at Baltimore Sept. 27, 1964, Burman was converted into a center although he had never played the position. For five games thereafter, he was the regular on the job. That further demonstrated his versatility because at Northwestern, a tackle his first two seasons, he was shifted to end as a senior. Offseason home: Munster, Ind.

DICK BUTKUS (51) LB 6'3" 240 Illinois 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-1 Born: 12-9-'42, Chicago

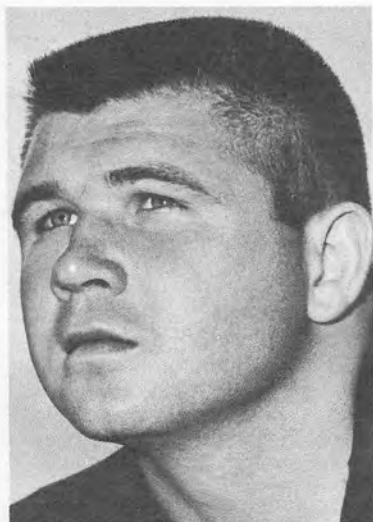

Butkus, All-American from Illinois the past two years and American Football Coaches Association Player of the Year for 1964, had a great evening as co-captain of the College All Stars. He made or assisted on fifteen tackles, blocked a fourth quarter field goal attempt and was second in the balloting for Most Valuable Player with 27 votes. Butkus was an offensive center and linebacker on defense at Illinois. He is a native Chicagoan who attended Vocational high school. Offseason home: Chicago.

JIM CADILE (72) 6'3" G 240 San Jose State 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-4 Born: 7-16-'40, San Jose, Cal.

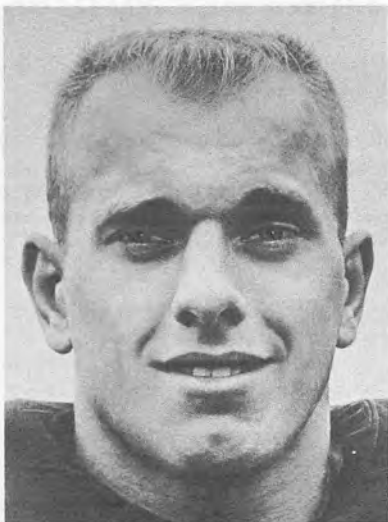

Cadile continued to improve as an offensive guard in his third year with the Bears. He played defensive end and offensive tackle in college but, with good speed and aggressiveness, he took over the Bears offensive guard spot without any trouble in 1963. In his rookie season of 1962, Cadile's pro debut was delayed until the tenth game of the schedule because of a broken ankle received in a pre-season contest. Offseason home: San Jose.

J. C. CAROLINE (25) DB 6'1" 190 Illinois 10th Season
Joined Bears: 1956, D-7. Born: 1-17-'33, Columbia, S.C.

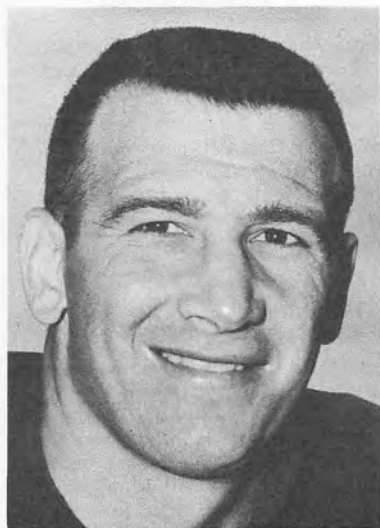

Caroline is accepted widely as one of the truly great team players in the National Football League. Last season, though functioning mainly on the Bears' kickoff and punting units because of his deadly tackling, he got two interceptions, running one back for 79 yards. That brought his nine year total to 24 and a tie with Richie Petitbon for the team career leadership. But his name appears in six other individual categories too—he only has failed to throw a pass, punt or place kick. He has, however, rushed for 263 yards; caught six passes for 111; returned 12 kickoffs 232 yards and eight punts 49 yards; recovered ten fumbles, including one run back 57 yards for a touchdown; and has scored six touchdowns. As added evidence of his versatility as a team player, J. C. also appeared as a linebacker in five different games last season.

MIKE DITKA (89) E 6'3" 230 Pittsburgh 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1961, D-1 Born: 10-18-'39, Carnegie, Pa.

Mike Ditka had his greatest season yet with the Bears in 1964-75 pass receptions for 897 yards and five touchdowns—despite a shoulder injury received in the win over the College All Stars that necessitated his wearing a shoulder harness throughout the schedule. His best single day was a 13-for-168 effort against Washington, only one catch under the club record of 14 set by Jim Keane in 1949. Mike also tied ex-Bear Ken Kavanaugh for an NFL record when he recovered team-mate Johnny Morris' fumble against Los Angeles in the end zone for a touchdown, his second that way. In 1962, he recovered Ron Bull's fumble for a score against the New York Giants. Kavanaugh had similar touchdowns in 1948 and 1950. He was named all-NFL tight end and also chosen to play for the West in the Pro Bowl, both for the fourth straight year. In the Pro Bowl, he suffered a rib injury. Offseason home: Lombard, Ill.

MIKE EISCHEID (37) K 5'11" 185 Upper Iowa 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, F.A. Born: 9-29-'40, Orange City, Ia.

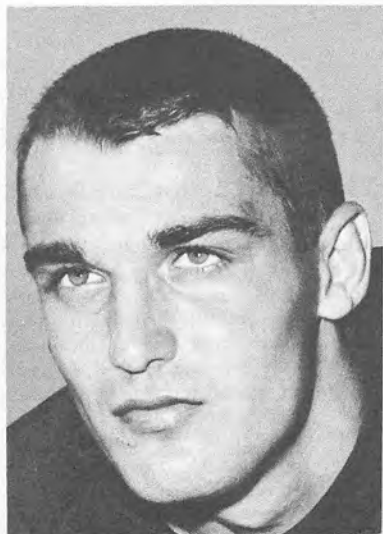

Eischeid was used primarily as a place kicker and punter during his career at Upper Iowa. He averaged 42.4 yards per punt for four years and his field goals included boots of 52, 47 and 46 yards. He was all-Iowa Intercollegiate Conference selection three seasons and as a senior was named to the NAIA All-American squad. Mike's dad, Everett "Eb" Eischeid is director of athletics at Upper Iowa. Offseason home: Fayette, Ia.

DICK EVEY (79) DE 6'4" 225 Tennessee 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, D-1 Born: 2-13-'41, State College, Pa.

Evey developed satisfactorily as a defensive end, a position to which he was moved late in the 1964 training season because of the injury situation. He had started at offensive guard and missed a lot of early, valuable defensive training. But, a fine two-way performer at Tennessee and a well merited no. 1 draft choice, he progressed rapidly and handled the defensive end spot capably. Offseason home: Springfield, O.

JOE FORTUNATO (31) LB 6'1" 225 Miss. State 11th Season
Joined Bears: 1955, D-8 for 1953 Born: 3-28-'31, Mingo Junction, Ohio

Fortunato's career statistical record is as impressive as that of any linebacker in the league—thirteen interceptions for 153 yards return and one touchdown; eighteen recoveries of opponents fumbles. He was an offensive fullback at Mississippi State and, the Bears' no. 8 choice in 1953, he served two years in the Army at Fort Benning, Ga., before beginning his pro career. Offseason home: Natchez, Miss.

KENT FRANCISCO (65) G 6'2" 245 UCLA 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-14 for 1964 Born 8-21-'42, Petaluma, Cal.

Francisco, UCLA captain last year, was a two-way performer who got in more playing time—368½ minutes—than any other member of the squad. He got in 335 minutes as a junior and 153 as a sophomore. He was selected on the All-Pacific Coast two-way team; the AAWU offensive team; and received All-America honorable mention. Offseason home: San Rafael, Cal.

BILL GEORGE (61) LB 6'2½" 235 Wake Forest 14th Season
Joined Bears: 1952, D-4 in 1951 Born: 10-27-'30, Waynesburg, Pa.

George played his thirteenth season for the Bears in 1964, tying George Trafton (1920-'32) for long service honors with the team. He was hit by injuries, beginning with pulled leg muscles in the preseason schedule and climaxed by a knee injury Nov. 1 that caused him to miss the final six games. George has been all-NFL linebacker eight times in ten years since 1955 and from 1955 through 1962, he played in eight straight Pro Bowl games. Statistically, he has broken into three categories: 18 interceptions, including two last season; 16 opponents fumbles recovered; 26 scoring points on 14 conversions and four field goals. Offseason home: Morton Grove, Ill.

LARRY GLUECK (43) DB 6' 190 Villanova 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1963, D-3 Born: 10-5-'41, Norristown, Pa.

Glueck underwent successful knee surgery during the offseason and returns for his third campaign as a defensive back. He was used mainly as a reserve and on kicking units in 1963 but last season, didn't get in too much playing time because of the cartilage damaged in the preseason schedule. Offseason home: Lansdale, Pa.

DICK GORDON (45) E 5'11' 190 Michigan State 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-6 Born: 1-1-'44, Cincinnati

Gordon experienced a spectacular rise at Michigan State where he didn't win a varsity letter until his junior year, when he appeared in seven games, playing 112 minutes and gaining 30 yards on eight tries.

Last season, he soared to 571 yards on 81 attempts, a seven-yard average, to finish second to Illinois fullback Jim Grabowski in the Big Ten rushing chart. Gordon was an all-Big Ten choice, especially talented as a defensive back too. He returned nine kickoffs last year for 201 yards, a 22.3 average. Offseason home: Cincinnati.

BOBBY JOE GREEN (88) K 5'11" 175 Florida 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, T-Pittsburgh Born: 5-7-'36, Vernon, Tex.

Green is a punting specialist whose five-year average of 45.2 yards on 341 boots is the highest on record in the NFL. In three of his five years, he was second in the punting statistics. His best single season was 1961 when he averaged 47 on 73 punts. Offseason home: Gainesville, Fla.

FRED HAGEMAN (52) C-G 6'5" 242 Kansas 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1965, T-Washington. Born: 6-30-'37, Bunkie, La.

Hageman, New York Giants' no. 8 pick for 1961, was traded to the Redskins for their no. 2 draft choice. In his first NFL season, Hageman won a starting berth as middle linebacker. The following year, he switched to offensive center. Enrolled originally at the University of Arkansas in 1955, he transferred to Kansas for 1958 and was captain of the 1960 Jayhawkers. He came to the Bears early this summer in the trade that sent Rick Casares and Bob Jencks to Washington. Off-season home: Lawrence, Kan.

JOHN JOHNSON (76) DT 6'5" 260 Indiana 3rd Season
Joined Bears: 1963, D-5 Born: 5-7-'41, Gary, Ind.

An appendectomy halfway through the training season idled Johnson through the early stages of his second NFL season. However, when he became active again, he provided much needed help on the defensive line corps. As a rookie, he started on offense but injuries on the defensive unit caused his transfer. He was used mainly as a reserve until Nov. 10, 1963 when he started against the Los Angeles Rams, ranged all over the field to make tackles and was so outstanding, team mates voted him the game ball. Offseason home: Hobart, Ind.

JIMMY JONES (80) E 6'2" 187 Wisconsin 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-6 for 1964 Born: 3-3-'41, Washington, D.C.

Jones was a consistent pass receiver for Wisconsin as a junior and a senior, totaling 56 receptions for 908 yards and seven touchdowns as he got in around 213 minutes of play each year. As a sophomore in 1962, he saw no action because of a knee injury. One of his biggest single collegiate days was in 1963 when he caught six passes for 100 yards and one touchdown against Notre Dame. He played in the January 2, 1965 East-West Shrine game. Jones won high school letters in four sports at Washington, D.C., and enrolled at Trinidad, Col., Junior College but transferred to Wisconsin. Offseason home: Washington.

STAN JONES (78) DT 6'1" 250 Maryland 12th Season
Joined Bears: 1954, D-4 for 1953 Born: 11-24-'31, Altoona, Pa.

Jones, all-NFL guard four times and member of the West team in the Pro Bowl seven times, all because of his offensive skills, has found a new career on defense. He went on full-time at defensive tackle in 1963, after having gone both ways a few times the previous season. Last year, he again was regular at defensive tackle. At Maryland, Jones was an All-American guard and Lineman of the Year in 1953. Offseason home: Rockville, Md.

BOB KILCULLEN (74) DT 6'3" 245 Texas Tech 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1957, D-8. Born: 5-13-'36, St. Louis, Mo.

Kilcullen, normally a defensive tackle, became a starter at defensive end in 1963 when injuries reduced the manpower in that area. He played there the rest of the way, with the exception of some time at tackle. Last season, a rib separation suffered in the opener at Green Bay kept him out of action for two games. Coming to the Bears in 1957, he spend his rookie season on defense but in 1958, he was shifted to offense. After nearly two years in the Army, which meant he missed one playing season, he returned to the Bears in 1960 and has been a defensive stalwart since. Offseason home: Winnetka, Ill.

RICH KREITLING (82) E 6'2" 210 Illinois 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1964, T-Cleveland Born: 3-13-'36, Chicago

Chicago native Kreitling, who spent his first five NFL years with the Cleveland Browns, suffered a fractured knee-cap in the preseason schedule and so didn't get in as much playing as he would have preferred in his first year with the Bears. He caught 20 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, functioning at split end. Kreitling, who starred on Fenger's city championship prep eleven, went to Illinois and was a 1958 All-American. He was Cleveland's no. 1 draft choice. His best season with the Browns was 1962 when he caught 44 for 659 yards and three touchdowns. Offseason home: Chicago.

RALPH KUREK (32) FB 6'2" 210 Wisconsin 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-20 Born: 2-23-'43, Muskego, Wis.

Kurek was a hard runner for Wisconsin for three seasons as he averaged close to four yards per carry and scored 11 touchdowns while gaining 957 yards rushing. As a sophomore, he had an exceptional 6.1 average and six touchdowns with 341 yards on 56 attempts. He's also a solid blocker. Offseason home: Watertown, Wis.

ROGER LECLERC (83) LB-PK 6'3" 235 Trinity 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1960, D-15 for 1959. Born: 10-1-'36, Springfield, Mass.

Leclerc, doubling as linebacker and place kicker, has booted 36 of his career total 46 field goals in the last three seasons. He shares the NFL record of five field goals in a game, against Detroit in 1961 on an effort that tied a mark first set by Ernie Nevers and tied later by Bob Waterfield. In 1963, he kicked four field goals in the 26-7 victory over the Green Bay Packers here. Last season, because of the injury-riddled linebacking triumvirate, Leclerc got in plenty of playing time on defense. Offseason home: Agawam, Mass.

HERMAN LEE (70) T 6'3" 247 Florida A.&M. 9th Season
Joined Bears: 1958, D-23 for 1954. Born: 8-29-'31, Phenix City, Ala.

Lee has fine speed for a big man and is regarded as an excellent straight ahead blocker who is smart and alert because of his experience. Drafted no. 23 in 1954, he was in the Army two years after graduation, then got tryouts with the Bears in 1956 and again in 1957, when he was traded to Pittsburgh. He played regularly for the Steelers and in 1958, was traded back to the Bears. Offseason home: Chicago.

EARL LEGGETT (71) DT 6'3" 255 Louisiana State 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1957, D-1 Born: 3-5-'34, Jacksonville, Fla.

Leggett had no injuries last season, in contrast to 1963 when recurrence of an old collegiate knee injury forced him out of the final three games or 1961 when he missed the entire schedule because of offseason surgery. The competitive phase of his career has more than justified his selection as no. 1 in the player draft for 1957. He improved steadily from his rookie season up to his enforced inactivity in 1961 and then, in 1962, resumed his progress. Offseason home: Raymond, Miss.

DICK LEEUWENBURG (57) T 6'5" 242 Stanford 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-11 for 1964 Born: 3-26-42, Salt Lake City, Utah

Leeuwenburg was the second hardest working player on the Stanford squad last season as he got in 295 minutes playing time. Only one other player surpassed that total. He was regarded as one of the Pacific Coast's top offensive linemen and was particularly outstanding at protecting the passer. Offseason home: Salt Lake City.

ANDY LIVINGSTON (48) HB 6' 234 Phoenix J.C. 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, F.A. Born: 10-21-'44, Mesa, Ariz.

Livingston, signed as a free agent, went on the active list late in 1964 and in his brief NFL competition, he distinguished himself by running back a kickoff 86 yards for a touchdown against the Minnesota Vikings in the season final. That was one of his six kickoff returns, for 167 yards, in his several league games. The runback distance was second for the year only to the 100-yard return by New York Giant rookie Clarence Childs who, incidentally, led the league in that department (34 for 987 yards). Livingston, who never played college football, starred at Mesa, Ariz., high school. Offseason home: Mesa.

JOE MARCONI (34) FB 6'2" 225 West Virginia 10th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, T-Los Angeles. Born: 2-6-'34, Fredericktown, Va.

Marconi's three-year offensive production for the Bears shows 950 yards rushing on 253 tries, a 3.76 average; 71 pass receptions for 822 yards; and six kickoff returns for 57 yards. He has scored fifteen touchdowns, nine running. A foot injury retarded Marconi last season and for the first time since he came to the Bears on a trade with the Los Angeles Rams, he failed to lead the team in rushing. He was the Rams' no. 1 draft choice in 1956 but was used mainly in a reserve role in nine seasons there. Offseason home: Lombard, Ill.

BILL MARTIN (85) E 6'5" 240 Georgia Tech 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, D-2 Born: 10-27-'42, Gainesville, Ga.

Martin understudied Mike Ditka at tight end in his rookie campaign and caught three passes for 93 yards. But one of those receptions came in the season final against Minnesota and almost saw him get away for a touchdown. It was good for 68 yards overall but he was hauled down at the two yard line. Martin was a great performer for three years at Georgia Tech, catching 56 passes for 777 yards and six touchdowns. He also is a fine blocker. Offseason home: Gainesville, Ga.

RILEY MATTSON (75) T 6'4" 255 Oregon 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1965, T-Washington Born: 12-18-'38, Portland, Ore.

Mattson was Washington's no. 11 draft choice for 1961 and he took over regular offensive left tackle that season and held the job ever since. He came to the Bears, along with Fred Hageman, on the Casares-Jencks trade. Oddly, Mattson caught the eye of Redskin scouts at the 1960 Liberty Bowl game in Philadelphia. They had been assigned to watch a Penn State tackle but noticed he was being manhandled by his opponent, Mattson. Offseason home: Portland, Ore.

BENNIE McRAE (26) DB 6' 180 Michigan 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-2 Born: 12-8-'39, Newport News, Va.

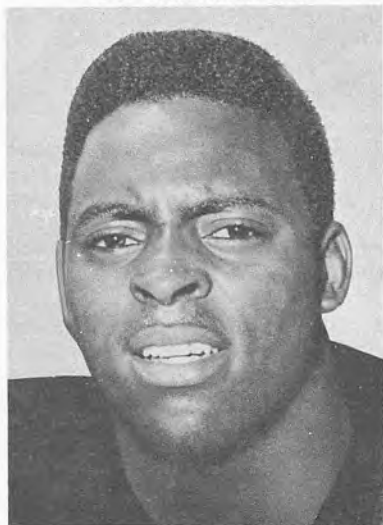

McRae has developed into a fine defensive back with the Bears, playing regularly two straight seasons after being a reserve in his rookie year. He has great speed and one of his nine interceptions since coming to the Bears was run back 35 yards for a touchdown. Last year, he had only two interceptions but one was returned for 26 yards and the other for 18. At Michigan, where he was used mainly as a running back, he was the Big Ten indoor and outdoor 70 and 120-yard hurdles champion. Offseason home: Newport News, Va.

JOHNNY MORRIS (47) FL 5'10" 180 U.C.S.B. 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1958, D-12 Born: 9-26/36, Long Beach, Cal.

Morris broke a fourteen-year old pass receiving record, set by Los Angeles' Tom Fears in 1950, with a smashing 93 catches for 1,200 yards and ten touchdowns last season. Fears caught 84 for the Rams. Those 93 also raised Johnny's lifetime total to 278 to take out Harlon Hill's old Bears' team mark of 226 in eight seasons. Morris, by the way, got 234 of his passes in the past four years since he first was moved from running back to flanker in 1961. He now has more than 7,000 yards in four different categories, pass receiving, rushing, punt and kickoff returns. In the final game of 1964, against Minnesota here, Johnny fell on his shoulder, reaching for a second quarter pass and had to retire for the day and the season. Fortunately, there was neither break nor separation so he returns strong as ever for 1965. Johnny played "B" football, but not varsity, at Long Beach high school. He went to the University of California at Santa Barbara with a brilliant reputation as a sprinter in track but he also went out for football and starred as a running back. Offseason home: Winnetka, Ill.

DENNIS MURPHY (73) DT 6'2" 250 Florida 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-10. Born: 3-9-/43, Cairo, Ga.

Murphy, rated the best interior lineman in the Southeastern Conference last season, has fine speed despite his size. His time for the 40-yard dash is 5.2 seconds. Murphy was a two-way performer at Florida, particularly rugged on defense. He broke in as a regular in his sophomore year and proceeded to take part in 31 straight games, including the 1963 Gator Bowl victory over Penn State. Murphy also played in the North-South game at Mobile, Ala. As a high schooler, he was selected on the Interscholastic All-America. Offseason home: Cairo, Ga.

ED O'BRADOVICH (87) DE 6'3" 235 Illinois 4th Season
Joined Bears: 1962, D-7 Born: 5-21-/40, Hillside, Ill.

O'Bradovich still was plagued by injuries—both knee and ankle this time—in 1964 and played but little. The previous year, a virus infection idled him until the ninth game of the schedule. Then, he went on to play excellently right on through the championship game and demonstrated that his rookie showing of 1962 was no accident. He lettered two seasons at Illinois, dropped out of school, played for Calgary (Canadian League), then joined the Bears. Offseason home: Hillside, Ill.

RICHIE PETITBON (17) DB 6'3" 205 Tulane 7th Season
Joined Bears: 1959, D-2 Born: 4-18-'38, New Orleans

Petitbon's six-year tenure with the Bears brought him a share of the career interception record, 24; and record return yardage, 496; as well as three touchdowns on runbacks of interceptions. One of those was a 101-yarder against Los Angeles in 1962. He was elected all-NFL safety in 1963 and twice, has played for the West in the Pro Bowl game. Drafted no. 2 from Tulane, where he was an outstanding quarterback, Petitbon was converted into a defensive back with the Bears. Offseason home: Metairie, La.

BRIAN PICCOLO (41) FB 6' 205 Wake Forest 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, F.A. Born: 10-31-'43, Pittsfield, Mass.

Piccolo was the nation's top ground gainer and scorer in 1964 with 1,044 yards on 252 attempts, a 4.14 average; and 111 points on 17 touchdowns and nine conversions. A veritable work-horse, he was high man among five college backs who carried the ball more than 200 times last season, yet he fumbled only once. His first two seasons at Wake Forest, he had 691 yards on 161 carries. Three times during 1964, he was picked on United Press-International's Backfield of the Week and once, he was Associated Press Player of the Week. Though a native of Pittsfield, Mass., he prepped at Central Catholic high in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Offseason home: Fort Lauderdale.

JIM PURNELL (53) LB 6'2" 225 Wisconsin 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, F.A. Born: 12-12-'41, Evanston

Purnell was activated from the reserve squad early last season to give depth to the linebacking contingent struck by injuries. His speed and aggressiveness, that made him a highly rated Big Ten performer as well as the honor of being voted most valuable by his Wisconsin team-mates in 1963, served him well in his rookie campaign. He was an all-state fullback in high school at Evanston but was converted into a lineman at Wisconsin. Offseason home: Evanston.

MIKE PYLE (50) C 6'3" 250 Yale 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1961, D-7 Born: 7-18-'39, Keokuk, Ia.

Pyle's personal durability record was snapped early last season when an ankle injury just before the game at Baltimore Sept. 27 sidelined him for five games. Previously, he had never missed a minute of offensive play through high school (New Trier), at Yale (where he was captain in 1960) or with the Bears, for whom he started 45 straight games, including the world's title victory. Offseason home: Chicago.

PALMER PYLE (69) G 6'3" 250 Michigan State 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1965, T-Minnesota Born: 6-12-'37, Keokuk, Ia.

Mike's older brother, Palmer was drafted no. 6 by Baltimore in 1959, as a future. He broke in as regular offensive guard in 1960 and functioned there through 1963. In June, 1964, he went to the Minnesota Vikings in a trade for Steve Stonebreaker and last May 22, the Bears got him on a trade for a draft choice. A fullback at New Trier high school, he was converted into a tackle at Michigan State. Offseason home: Northbrook.

MIKE RABOLD (64) G 6'2" 240 Indiana 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1963, F.A. Born: 3-12-'37, Chicago

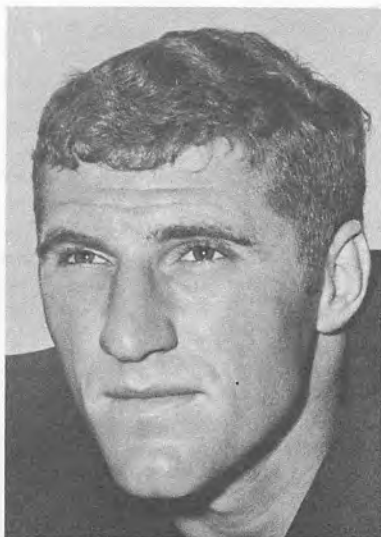

Rabold was a reserve offensive lineman in 1964, following a season on the Bears' reserve list. Captain and all-Big Ten selection at Indiana in 1958, he was Detroit's no. 2 draft choice and a rookie starter in 1959. He was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1960. The following two seasons, he was a regular with Minnesota. Offseason home: Chicago.

LARRY RAKESTRAW (12) QB 6'2" 195 Georgia 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, D-8 Born: 4-22-'42, Mableton, Ga.

Rakestraw, on the Bears' reserve squad, was activated for the final game of the season. He came to them as a no. 8 draft choice from Georgia where he led Southeastern Conference passers with 103 out of 209 for 1,297 yards and seven touchdowns in 1963. For his career, he had 249 completions for 3,142 yards plus 523 yards rushing, a total offense of 3,665 yards. Offseason home: Mableton, Ga.

MIKE REILLY (62) LB 6'2½" 238 Iowa 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, D-4 Born: 3-27-'42, Dubuque, Ia.

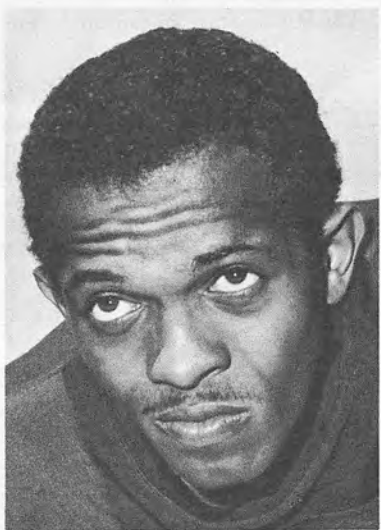

Until a fractured arm received in the Dallas Cowboys' game on Nov. 1 put him on the reserve list for the remainder of 1964, Reilly had seen considerable service as a linebacker in his rookie season. Injuries that hit the Bears' veteran linebacking trio gave the Iowan more than the ordinary amount of playing time. As a senior at Iowa, he was both All-American and All-Big Ten guard. Offseason home: Dubuque.

Joined Bears: 1965, F.A. Born: 1942, Hallettsville, Tex.

Rice was a four-year line star at Texas Southern with an especially fine record on defense. After graduation, he joined the Wheeling, W. Va., team of the United League where he played last season. Off-season home: Hallettsville.

GALE SAYERS (40) HB 6' 198 Kansas 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-1 Born: 5-30-'43, Wichita, Kan.

All-American halfback Gale Sayers set a Big Eight Conference record by rushing 2,675 yards, a 6.5 average in three seasons at the University of Kansas. His skills elsewhere offensively made him one of the conference's greatest backs of all time—35 pass receptions for 408 yards; 22 kickoff returns for 513 yards, including a 93 yard touchdown in 1964; 28 punt returns for 324 yards. He scored twenty touchdowns and set other conference records for longest run from scrimmage, 99 yards against Nebraska in 1963; and most yards in a single game, 283 on 22 carries against Oklahoma State in 1962. He was selected on the American Football Coaches Association All-America in 1963 and 1964. Member of College All Stars. Offseason home: Omaha, Neb.

BRIAN SCHWEDA (60) T 6'3" 250 Kansas 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, D-8 Born: 4-30-'43, Kansas City, Kan.

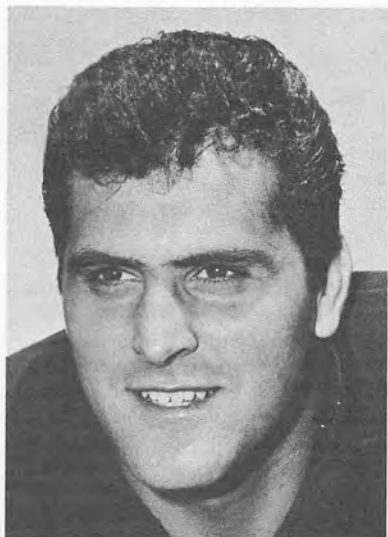

Schweda was an All-Big Eight conference selection as a senior after having been named to the second all-star team in his junior year. He is a rangy, husky, offensive lineman, described as a fine blocker who possesses good speed and mobility. Offseason home: Lawrence, Kan.

JOHN SISK (27) DB 6'3" 195 Miami, Fla. 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1964, D-17 for 1963 Born: 7-15-'41, Milwaukee

Sisk, whose dad, John, Sr., was a halfback on Bear championship teams of 1932-'33 and continued on as a regular through 1936, saw service late in his rookie season of 1964. He was activated as a defensive back for the last couple of games of the schedule. John originally enrolled at Marquette—his dad's alma mater—but when the university dropped football and track in 1960, he transferred to Miami of Florida. Offseason home: Milwaukee.

at Wisconsin, he picked up nearly 1,950 yards on rushing, pass receiving, punt and kickoff returns—696, 399, 120 and 774. His senior campaign was his best as he averaged 4.4 yards with 457 yards on 101 carries; caught 13 passes for 114 yards; and returned 19 kickoffs for 483 yards. In four seasons with the Badgers, he scored nine touchdowns. Offseason home: East Chicago.

JOE SZCZECKO (59) DE 6' 250 Northwestern 1st Season
Joined Bears: 1965, F.A. Born: 8-25-'42, Germany

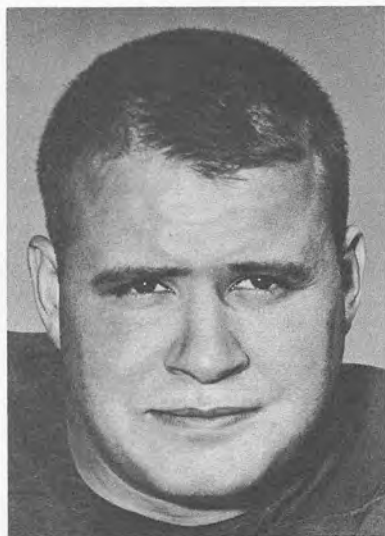

Szczeko (pronounced "Shess-ko") came to the United States in 1949 from his native Germany. He prepped at Gordon Tech in Chicago and, enrolling at Northwestern, he was a starting tackle for three seasons. As a sophomore, he won national recognition when the Associated Press voted him "Lineman of the Week" honors for his performance in the Wildcats' 35-6 victory over Notre Dame. He played both ways his first two years at Northwestern but as a senior, became a defensive specialist. For the past two years, he was named to the All-Big Ten academic team. He was the third Bear selected for the College All Stars. Offseason home: Chicago.

ROOSEVELT TAYLOR (24) DB 5'11" 186 Grambling 5th Season
Joined Bears: 1961, F.A. Born: 7-4-'37, New Orleans

Taylor's sharp tackling, sure hands and alertness have made him a talented member of the defensive secondary since the Bears signed him as a free agent in 1961. His first couple of seasons too, his speed and elusiveness made him an asset on kick return units. In 1963, he tied New York's Dick Lynch for the NFL interception leadership, nine apiece. That total also was a new Bears' single season record. Taylor set up key scores six times during the Bears' title campaign in 1963, three on interceptions, including one return for a touchdown; and three on fumble recoveries. He was named all-NFL safety and also played in the Pro Bowl game. Offseason home: New Orleans.

DICK VAN RAAPHORST (36) P.K. 6' 218 Ohio State 2nd Season
Joined Bears: 1965, W-Dallas Born: 12-10-'42, Port Huron, Mich.

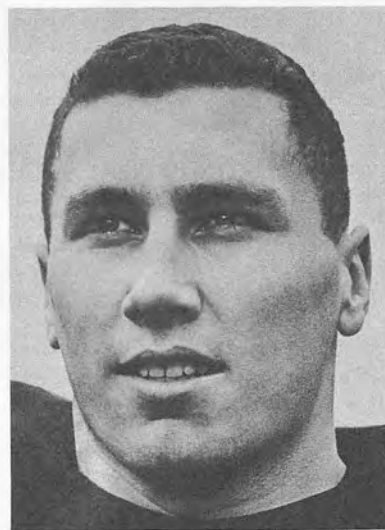

Van Raaphorst, Cleveland's 10th draft choice for 1964 who was traded to Dallas before the season began, scored 70 points for the Cowboys on 28 out of 29 conversions and 14 field goals in 29 attempts. At Ohio State, where his three-year place kick production showed 52-60 extra points and 14-24 field goals, he broke the Big Ten field goal distance record twice in 1963—a 48-yarder against Indiana followed by a 49-yarder a week later that tied Illinois in the final minute. Before he enrolled at Ohio State, he got some special place kicking instruction from the Browns' Lou Groza. He came to the Bears on waivers during the winter. Offseason home: Ligonier, Pa.

BILL WADE (9) QB 6'2" 205 Vanderbilt 12th Season
Joined Bears: 1961, T-Los Angeles Born: 10-4-'30, Nashville, Tenn.

Four seasons with the Bears have been most productive for Wade who has thrown 68 touchdown passes; has run for fourteen more, plus two in the 1963 world championship win over the Giants; has had ten three-touchdown games; three four-touchdown games; eight games of 300 yards or more gain passing and one of 466. He also set club season records in 1962 for most attempts, completions and yards (412-225-3,172); longest completion (98 yards to the late John Farrington in 1961); most attempts and completions in one game (57-33) against Washington Oct. 25, 1964. His four-season accuracy mark with the Bears is 54.9 and for his NFL career, it's 54.5. Offseason home: Nashville.

BOB WETOSKA (63) T 6'3" 240 Notre Dame 6th Season
Joined Bears: 1960, F.A. Born: 8-22-'37, Minneapolis

Wetoska continued to gain league-wide respect as an offensive lineman last season. A starting tackle who also can handle guard assignments, Wetoska is one of the most improved linemen in the league. He was an end for three seasons at Notre Dame, drafted no. 5 by Washington but not retained by the Redskins. The Bears signed him as a free agent. Offseason home: Chicago.

DAVE WHITSELL (23) DB 6'1" 190 Indiana 8th Season
Joined Bears: 1961, T-New York Born: 6-14-'36, Shelby, Mich.

Nineteen of Whitsell's twenty NFL career pass interceptions have come since he joined the Bears. In three previous seasons, he had only one interception with the Detroit Lions who transferred him to the then new Minnesota Vikings for 1961. The Vikings in turn traded him to the New York Giants and the Bears then got him on another trade. Offseason home: Indianapolis.

The Bears on the Air . . . TV . . . Radio

BRICKHOUSE

BUCK

All Bears' National Football League road games will be televised for the sixth straight season in Chicago over WBBM-TV (Channel 2). The CBS presentations will be telecast by George Connor, five times all-NFL tackle as a member of the Bears after having won all-American honors at Notre Dame, and Jack Buck, veteran sportscaster from St. Louis.

All Bears' games, home and road, will be broadcast by radio station WGN with Jack Brickhouse doing the play-by-play and Irv Kupcinet the color commentary.

They Bring the Bears Story To You

The story of the Chicago Bears, as it develops in "spot news" form, is brought to you through printed words and action stills in newspapers, graphic oral descriptions over the radio and live action on television screens. Here are some of the members of Chicago press, radio and television responsible for covering the activities of the Bears this season:

CHICAGO'S AMERICAN—Leo Fischer, sports editor; Harry Sheer, Bill Gleason, Brent Musburger.

CHICAGO DAILY NEWS—John Carmichael, sports editor; Bob Smith, Bill Jauss.

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES—Dick Hackenberg, sports editor; Jim Mullen, Bruce Morrison, Joe Agrella, Jack Griffin.

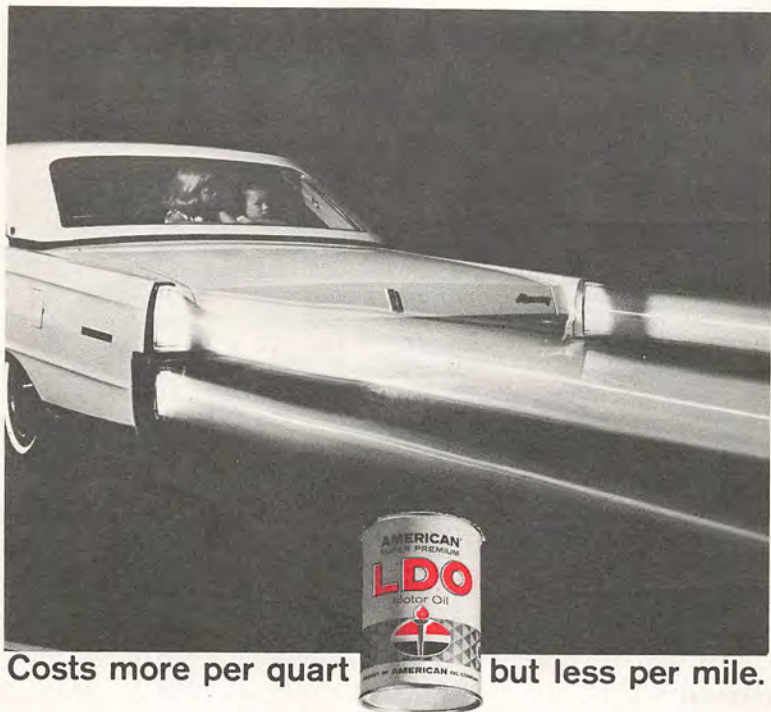

CHICAGO TRIBUNE—Wilfrid Smith, sports editor; George Strickler, Cooper Rollow, Dave Condon.

ASSOCIATED PRESS—Jerry Liska, sports editor; Charles Chamberlain, Joe Mooshil.

UNITED PRESS-INTERNATIONAL—Ed Sainsbury, sports editor.

WGN RADIO—Jack Brickhouse, Irv Kupcinet, Vince Lloyd, Lloyd Pettit, Jack Rosenberg.

CBS TELEVISION—George Connor, Jack Buck.

Costs more per quart but less per mile.

Times have changed when it comes to changing oil. A look at your owner's manual (it should be in the glove compartment) confirms this. Cars are built to go longer—much longer—between drains. You need a motor oil that matches modern cars. Such a motor oil is AMERICAN® Super Premium LDO®. It has been specifically formulated to last longer than any other premium motor oil—by far. LDO costs more per quart but less per mile.

If you'd rather pay a little less per quart and change oil oftener, your best bet is still Super PERMALUBE®—one of the largest selling premium motor oils in America. See your Standard Oil Dealer.

1940 Bears Voted Greatest

This is the silver anniversary of the assembling of the 1940 Bears, voted by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963 as the greatest pro team of all time. The Academy is composed of more than 100 sports editors of newspapers with 100,000 or more circulation.

That '40 team is most famous as the destructive force that overwhelmed the Washington Redskins, 73-0, for the world's championship. Experts agree that not before or since that December afternoon did any pro eleven function so perfectly in a game of such importance.

George Halas, incidentally, had only two assistants, Hunk Anderson and Carl Brumbaugh.

The squad had other distinctions. It touched off a four-year Bears' monopoly of the Western Conference of the NFL, a period that saw them compile a 37-5-1 league record with championships in 1940, 1941 and 1943. The 1940 team also had the greatest set of rookies in history . . . its first year men included "Bulldog" Turner, Ken Kavanaugh, Ed Kolman, George McAfee, "Scooter" McLean, Harry Clark, Al Baisi, Lee Artoe, Hamp Pool, Bob Nowaskey and Joe Mihal. "Sophomores" included Sid Luckman, Bill Osmanski, Aldo Forte, Bob Snyder, Solie Sherman, Ray Bray, John Siegal and Jack Torrance, all of whom started in 1939.

Including preseason games, the Bears of that four-season period had a 62-7-1 record with 2,164 points against 842. In 1941 and 1942, they reeled off 18 straight victories, to tie their 1933-'34 mark. They won eleven straight in 1942, but lost to Washington, 14-6, for the title.

The Pro Bowl Game

The West holds a 10-5 edge on the East in the All Star Pro Bowl game played annually since 1951 in Los Angeles. It is sponsored by the National Football League in cooperation with the Los Angeles Publishers Association. Coaches from the respective conferences lead squads composed of star players from the West and the East.

Every National Football League coach selects first and second offensive and defensive elevens from among players on the six other teams in his particular conference. He cannot vote for his own players. The NFL Commissioner and the Pro Bowl Committee each selects first and second offensive and defensive squads from each conference. The final selections are made on a basis of two points for a first team choice, one for a second. That means a unanimous selection would be worth sixteen points. Past scores:

1951 East, 28-27	1955 West, 26-19	1959 East, 28-21	1963 East, 30-20
1952 West, 30-13	1956 East, 31-30	1960 West, 38-21	1964 West, 31-17
1953 West, 27-7	1957 West, 19-10	1961 West, 35-31	1965 West, 34-14
1954 East, 20-9	1958 West, 26-7	1962 West, 31-30

These Bears have been members of past West squads:

The twentieth annual Armed Forces Benefit game, matching the Bears and the St. Louis Cardinals at Soldier Field Friday night, Sept. 3, marks the eleventh straight time it's sponsored by the Chicago Publishers Association (Chicago's American, The Daily News, The Sun-Times and The Tribune).

Sharing in the proceeds are Army Emergency Relief, the Navy Relief Society and the Air Force Aid Society, all official agencies that provide financial assistance to service-men and to widows or orphans of service-men needing it. Since 1946, the series has raised $813,821.36.

The inaugural in 1946 resulted from a meeting in Washington attended by Dwight D. Eisenhower, then Army Chief of Staff; Admiral Chester K. Nimitz; General Ira Eaker, General Carl Spaatz, George S. Halas and Ralph Cannon, then sports editor of the Chicago Herald-American which sponsored the game in 1946 and 1947. The Sun-Times assumed sponsorship from 1949 through 1954 and in 1955, the four Chicago metropolitan daily newspapers joined in its direction.

In 1953, President Eisenhower authorized presentation of a trophy to the outstanding player in every game, selected by sports writers, radio and TV broadcasters.

Good news for travelers! Your Standard Oil Credit Card is now honored in payment for food and lodging at any Best Western or Best Eastern Motel, America's largest motel chain, as well as at any Albert Pick Hotel or Motel. Just say, "Charge it!" One bill to pay, one check to write. Use your Credit Card for greater convenience on your next trip.

traps

tiny particles
in gasoline

(before they get into your fuel line!)

All gasolines pick up tiny impurities in transit and in storage. These impurities, should they get in your gasoline tank, could clog up the fuel line filter and stop you cold. The American FINAL/FILTER traps these tiny particles right at the pump nozzle. If you use your car on the job (and even if you don't) you stay out of trouble when you "fill 'er up filtered" with AMERICAN® Regular or AMERICAN® Super-Premium.

You expect more from Standard and you get it!*
